Miss Manghan

The Ship's cargo is being stored
For the long voyage ahead.
Into the storeroom labeled Education
Will go four years of hard work and toil;
Into the storeroom marked Experience
Will go four years of wonderful friendships;
With triumphs and sorrows
Which can never be forgotten,
The vessel will be well-prepared
For its journey out of the snug harbor.

SOCIAL CHATTER

Miss Pamela MacGowan Is Bride

Unitarian Memorial Church, Fairhaven, was the setting at 4 Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Miss Pamela Akerley MacGowan of Boston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Jones Jr. of 87 Laurel Street, Fairhaven, to Donald Arthur Lovett, son of the John D. Lovetts of Plymouth.

The Rev. Zoltan Nagy officiated at the ceremony, which was followed immediately by a reception at the New Bedford Hotel.

The bride, escorted by her stepfather, wore a gown of white peau de soie and alencon lace with circle neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and a bell-shaped skirt, its fan-pleated back terminating in a court train. With it, she had a white silk illusion veil arranged from a dainty band of peau de soie and she carried small orchids with stephanotis for her bouquet.

Miss Chesley H. Tellier of Boston was maid of honor, wearing pale pink silk organza with raspberry pink sweetheart roses. Similarly attired were the bridesmaids, Mrs. Chester A. Crosby Jr. of Osterville, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Barbara L. Smythe of Boston; Miss Jane C. Lewis of Brookfield Center, Conn., and Miss Carolyn A. Knowlton, West Hempstead, Long Island, cousin of the bride.

Chester A. Crosby Jr. was best man. Ushering were Karl L. Mengoli of Boston; Dr. Louis R. Mengoli of Columbus, Ohio; Paul F. Ferrara of Danvers and Jonathan C. MacGowan of Fairhaven, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother was attired in turquoise silk sheath with pale pink flowered hat, matching turquoise accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother chose beige raw silk with blue hat, beige accessories and an orchid for her corsage.

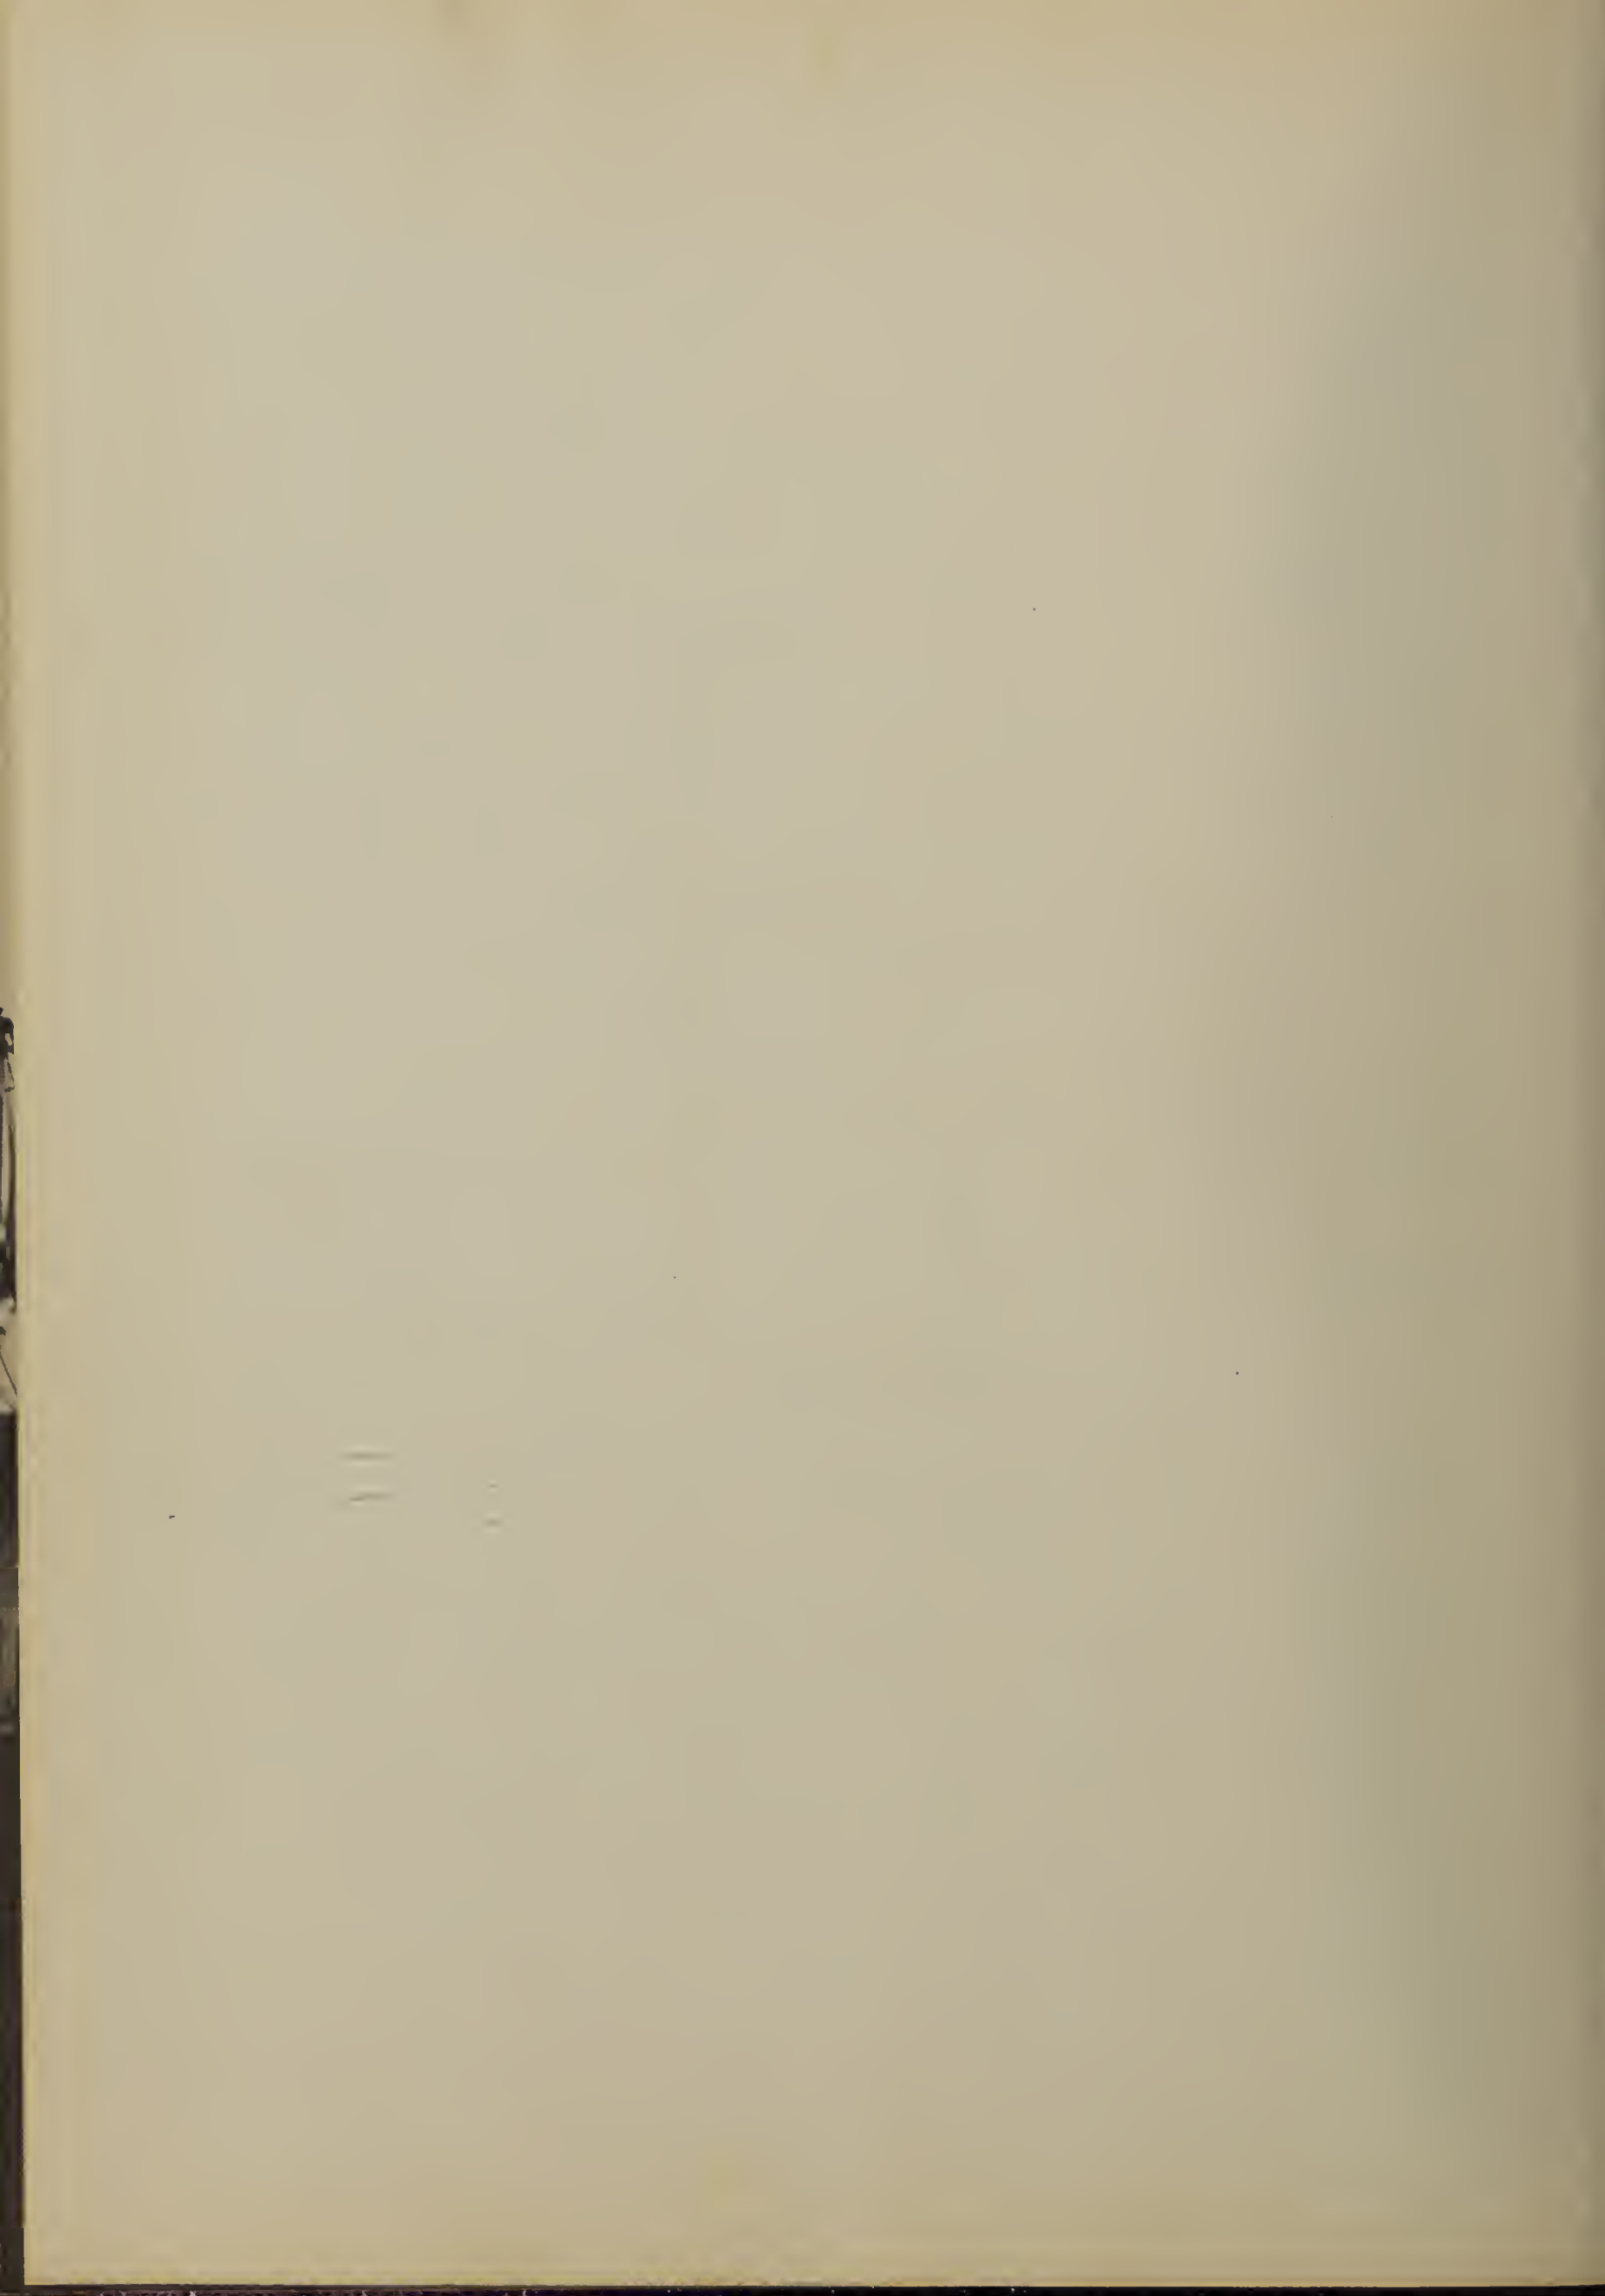

After a honeymoon in Nassau, Mr. and Mrs. Lovett will reside at 1415 Commonwealth Avenue, Brighton. For traveling the bride wore a plum suit with mink collar, plum-colored flowered pillbox hat, coffee-colored accessories and a white orchid.

Mrs. Lovett is a graduate of Fairhaven High School and Katharine Gibbs School in Boston. Her husband was graduated from Plymouth High School and Burdett College. He is with the State Street Bank and Trust Company in Boston.

MRS. DONALD A. LOVETT

The Huttlestonian

Class of 1962

Fairhaven High School, like every small town school, has its share of dedicated teachers. One such person is Mr. Clement, who teaches United States History. Mr. Clement has also imprinted upon the minds of many young men the ideals of good sportsmanship and teamwork.

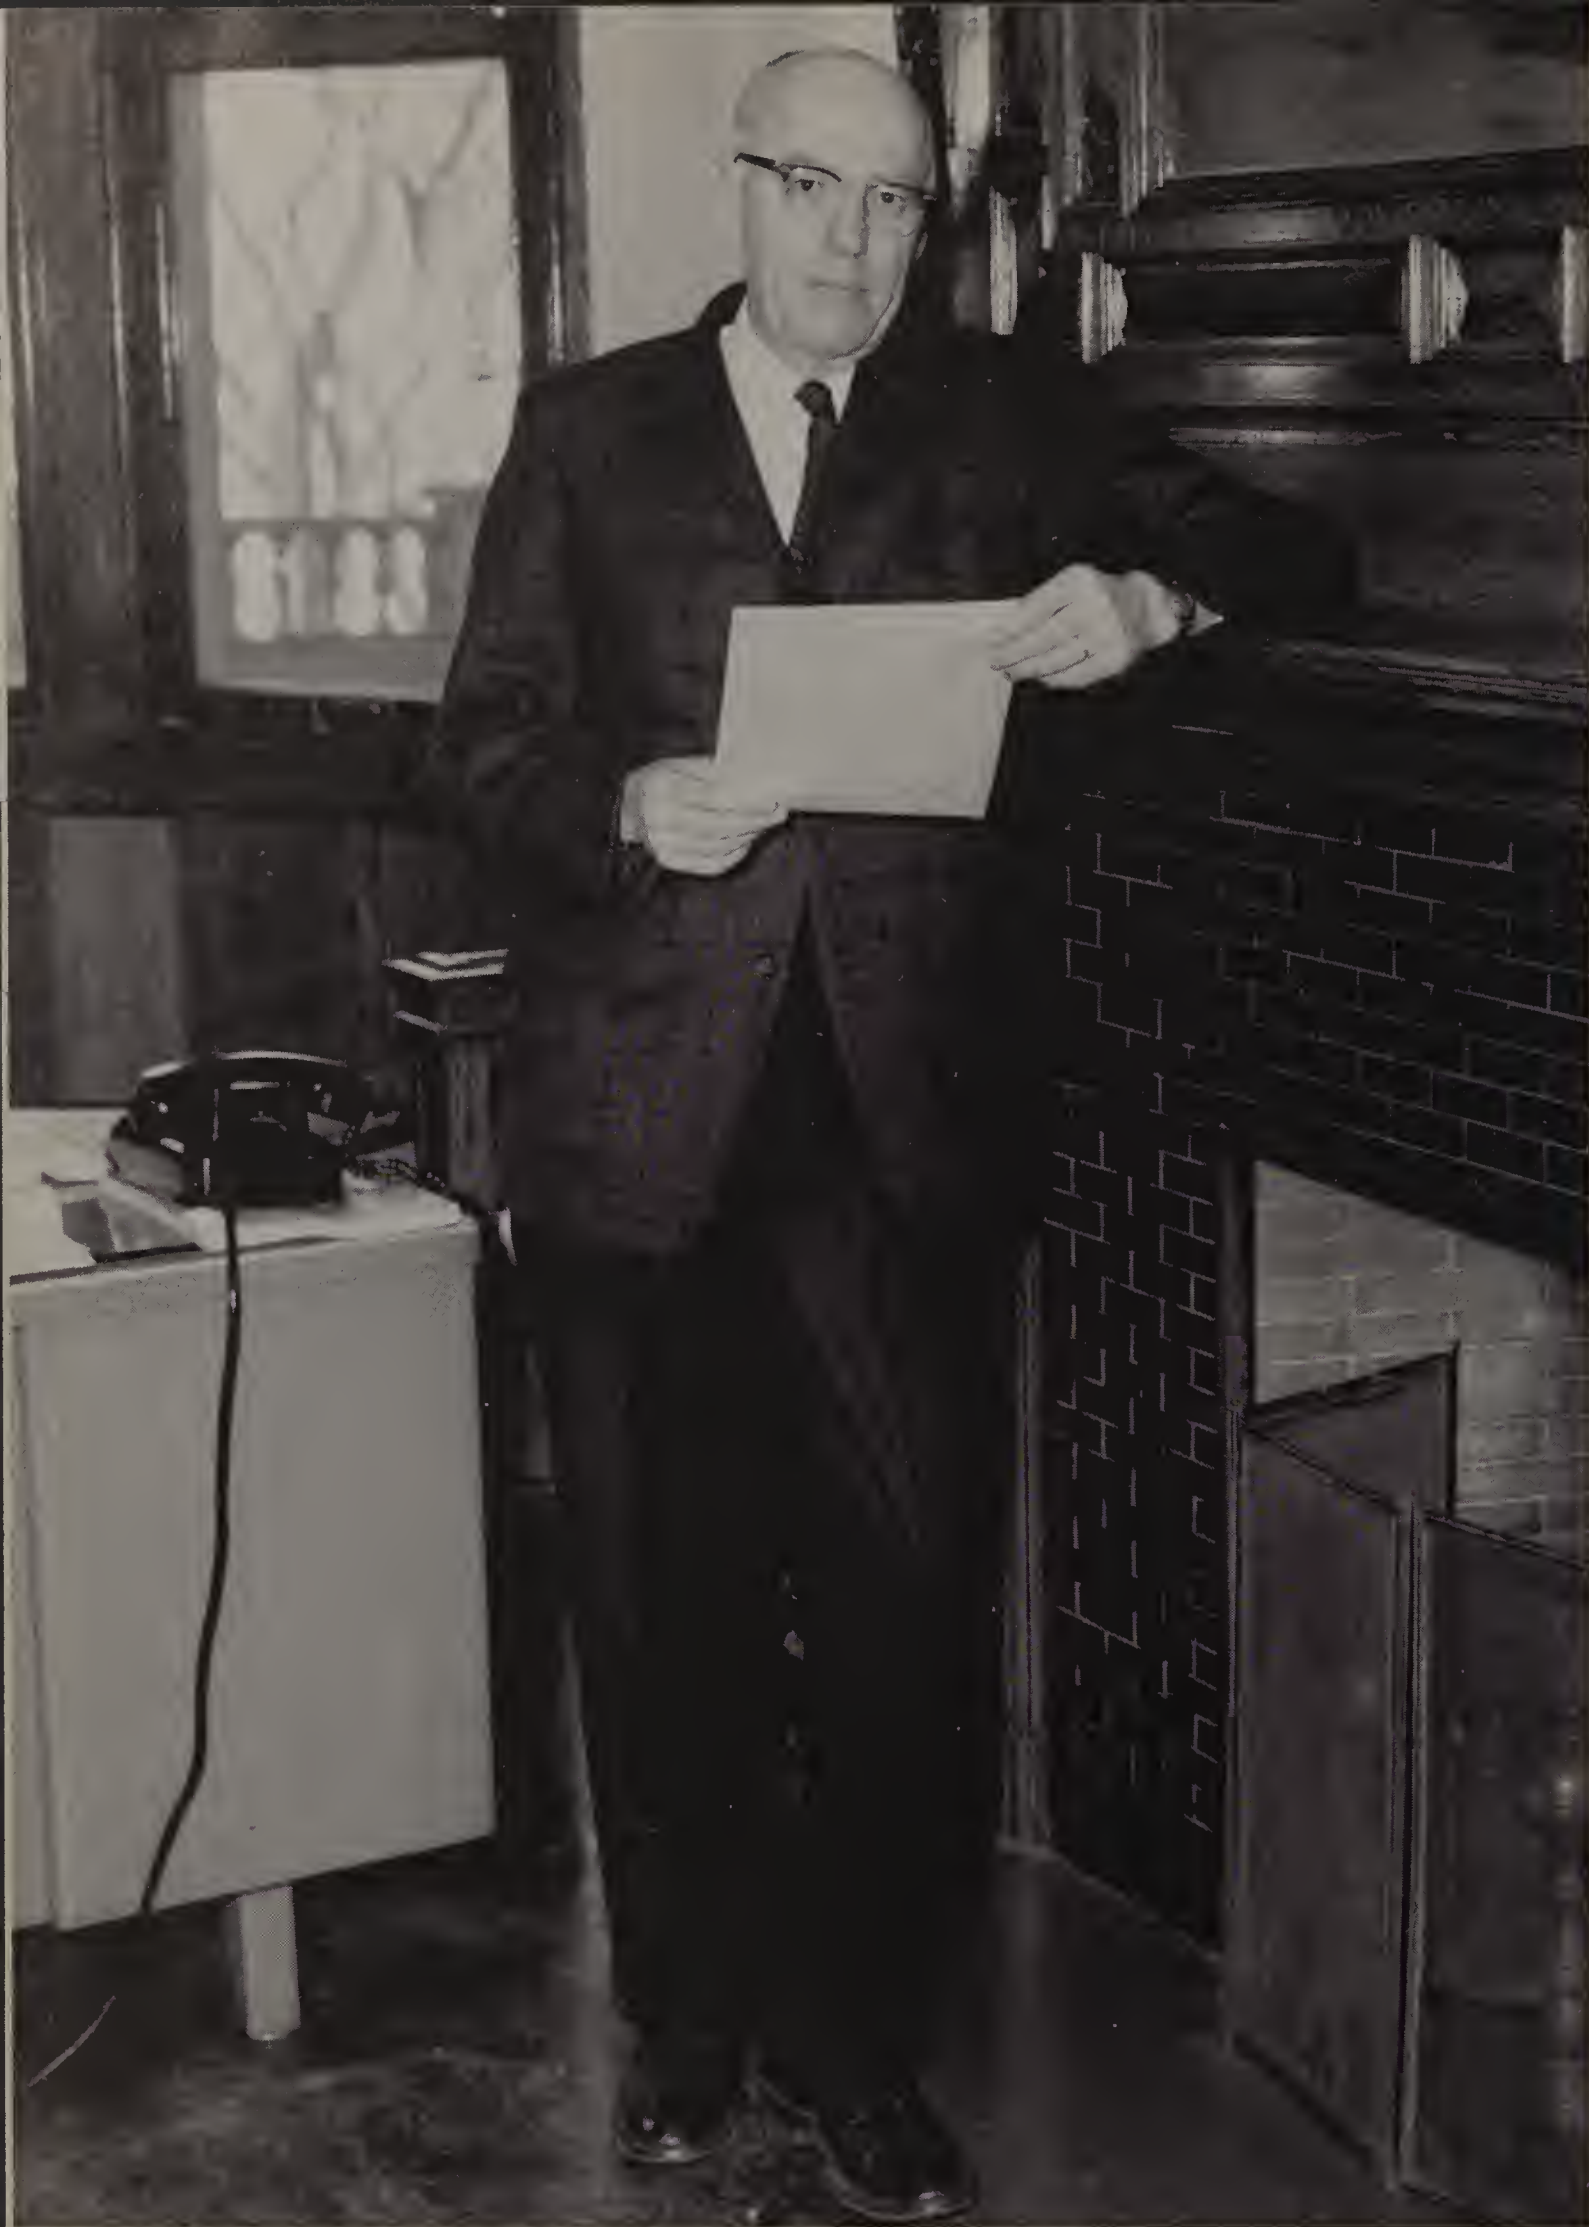

Mr. Clement has taught many citizens about our country's past. He himself became a part of this past when he served as an officer in the Navy in World War II.

However, Mr. Clement has been more than a coach, naval officer, or teacher to the students of Fairhaven High. He has been a friend. Because of this, we, the class of 1962, dedicate our issue of The Huttlestonian to our teacher and friend, Mr. Alexander M. Clement.

In Tribute

For as long as we can remember, this great country of ours has sought to establish peace between the nations of the world. Because of the advances of modern technology, the various countries have come to depend more and more upon one another. With the relations between these countries becoming increasingly important, each citizen should become more aware of his neighbors across the sea.

The Huttlestonian wishes to pay tribute to those young men and women who have accepted the challenge of the Peace Corps. By living and working with the citizens of many underdeveloped countries, these young adults are promoting better international relations on a person to person basis. Although this task is a prodigious one, its accomplishment is necessary to the future welfare of the human race. Thus we salute the Peace Corps, for they have started out nobly in pursuit of this goal.

Our Principal, MR. ENTWISTLE

A Message From Our Principal

Members of the Class of 1962

It is fitting and timely that you have selected as the theme for your yearbook, "Our school in our town." This is a time when we are reviewing the past with a feeling of pride for the many good years that have gone by since Fairhaven became a separate and distinct community. Men and women who have trod its streets and sailed from its shores have given to Fairhaven a history that is rich, exciting and meaningful. In this sesquicentennial year, we are proud to honor their memory and accomplishments.

Yet we must remember that "The Past is Prologue to the Future." We cannot rest on the achievements of our forbears if Fairhaven is to continue to occupy a place of distinction. We shall be judged by what we do and not what others have done. To you, in particular, is assigned the task of continuing the advance. It is to you, eager with the promise of life, that we must turn. The responsibility of the future is not a light one, but it is yours to accept. Fashion the future with all the capabilities you possess, and you, too, will add to the heritage of this town and this school.

Our best wishes go with you.

A Vote of Thanks to Our Faculty

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

Next fall the doors of Fairhaven High will open once again to the eager-hearted boys and girls of a new Freshman Class. With a wide-eyed curiosity and a keen desire for learning, they will embark upon that eternal journey for knowledge. Thus, your job will begin all over again. However, we, the Class of 1962, shall venture into a larger school, the school of life, but the doors of Fairhaven High will not be closed behind us. We shall remember not only our education here, but also the patience and interest with which it was given us.

You teachers have been more than instructors of facts and figures and followers of the book and pen. You have brought your personalities into the classroom and have kindled in us the desire to learn. Most important, you have taught, sometimes by speech but always by example, good character. We hope that our achievements will measure up to the hopes you have in us and that you may be duly proud of the fine part you have played in our education. For all this, we give you our sincere thanks and appreciation.

CARLTON ALBRITTON, B.S.E.

Mr. Albritton is one of our Guidance Directors and also teaches science. Originally from Junction City, Arkansas, Mr. Albritton graduated from Southern State College. Among his many interests are photography and varieties of sports. We students shall always remember Mr. Albritton, an understanding friend to all and a true asset to Fairhaven High School.

RAYMOND ARIETA, B.S.

Mr. Arieta, a new teacher at Fairhaven High School, received his degree from New Bedford Institute of Technology and did graduate work at Siena College. Besides teaching mechanical drawing and general science, Mr. Arieta coaches our up and coming J.V. football team.

LEO BALANDYK

Thanks to the patience of Mr. Balandyk, our band and orchestra leader, many Fairhaven High School students have expanded their enjoyment and appreciation of good music. Mr. Balandyk, who was born in New Bedford, attended the Contemporary School of Music in New York, and played in the Eddie Duchin Orchestra. Now in his spare time, he enjoys swimming and listening to his fine collection of high fidelity records.

RAYMOND G. BOYCE, B.S., M.S.

The head of the science department and also a chemistry teacher, Mr. Boyce daily opens up the wonders of chemistry to any curious Fairhaven High School student. He attended Fitchburg State Teachers' College, Bridgewater State College, and Boston College. Carrying the spirit of scientific inquiry into his hobbies, Mr. Boyce enjoys collecting and analyzing rocks.

MARGUERITE BRASOR, Ph.B.

Born in St. Albans, Vermont, Mrs. Brasor graduated from the University of Vermont. She now teaches English in our school. Besides being a busy homemaker, Mrs. Brasor finds enjoyment in painting and reading.

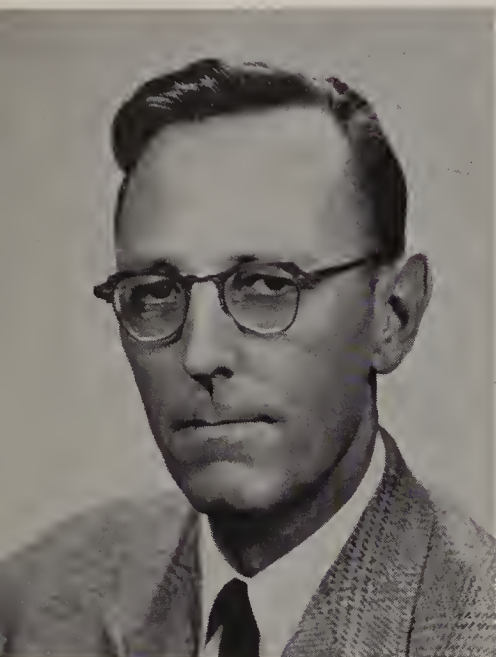

DORIS BRUCE, B.S.

When a Fairhaven High School student needs help or advice in deciding his future career, he may visit Mrs. Bruce, our Director of Guidance and Testing. Mrs. Bruce attended Bridgewater State College and Boston University. Among her many interests are reading and cooking, though she particularly enjoys camping trips and outdoor activities.

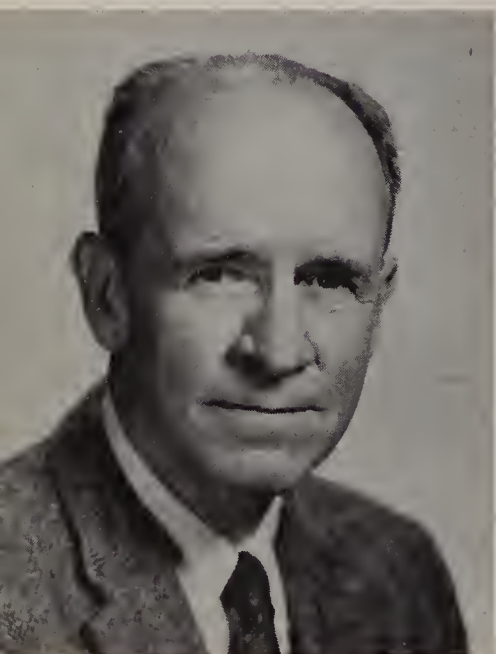

A. JEAN CAMPBELL, B.S.

Miss Campbell, who is the girls' physical education teacher, graduated from the University of Minnesota. After school hours, she coaches the girls' basketball and volleyball teams, and also enjoys participating in these sports herself.

JAMES CLARK, B.A.

Mr. Clark, who is new to our staff this year, attended Phillips Exeter Academy, Boston University, and Dartmouth College. In his leisure time, our English teacher finds relaxation in playing golf.

ALEXANDER MITCHELL CLEMENT, B.S., M.Ed.

For many years Mr. Clement has taught United States History at Fairhaven High School. Having visited many historical Civil War battlefields, he is able to give a realistic description of them to his classes. He attended Williams College, North Adams State College, and Hyannis State College. In his leisure time, Mr. Clements enjoys doing crossword puzzles and reading up on sports.

HAROLD CORNFORTH JR., B.A., M.Ed.

Mr. Cornforth is strictly a teacher of mathematics. He attended Bates College in Maine and nearby Bridgewater State College. Later he took summer courses in mathematics at Ohio Wesleyan College and Hamilton College. This athletic math teacher is also our football and track coach. His outside interests include travel, chess, and water sports.

FRANCINE M. CRISCI, A.B.

Mrs. Crisci, who is new to our school this year, comes from Brooklyn, New York, and attended Brooklyn College and classes at Bridgewater State College. An enthusiastic participant in literary discussions, she also enjoys braiding rugs and keeping up her garden.

LOUISE F. DENNIE, R.N.

Mrs. Dennie, our school nurse, has been a resident of Fairhaven all her life. She is a graduate of Truesdale Hospital School of Nursing and received her R.N. degree there.

EDITH G. DIAS, A.B.

For many years Fairhaven High School Latin students have learned the genitive case and indirect discourse from Mrs. Dias. She is a graduate of Brown University and received her degree in the French language and literature. She enjoys travelling and for four summers toured Europe extensively. Mrs. Dias brings life to her Virgil classes by having a first hand knowledge of the Latin countries. She spent the summer of 1958 with the Virgilean Society of America in Italy and Sicily.

PRISCILLA DORAN, B.S.Ed.

Mrs. Doran, a new addition to the Fairhaven High School faculty, graduated from Framingham State Teachers' College. She has carried her homemaking experience into our Home Economics Department, of which she is the head. Among her varied interests are cooking, sewing, swimming, and skating.

DONALD J. B. DUFOUR, B.A., M.Ed.

Mr. Dufour, who teaches French, received his degrees from Assumption College and Bridgewater State College. Among his many interests, Mr. Dufour enjoys teaching his own children how to speak French. He also enjoys singing, either solo or with his entire French class. Mr. Dufour is an avid tennis fan and manages to play as many as six times a week. His lifelong ambition is to visit "la douce France."

MELVIN ENTIN, B.S.

Mr. Entin, who has been a lifelong resident of Fairhaven, is a graduate of the University of Rhode Island. At present, he teaches biology, as well as being the Director of Physical Education and Athletics in Fairhaven. In his spare time he enjoys gardening, woodworking, and fishing.

MANUEL FONTES, B.S., B.A., M.Ed.

The Huttlestonian Staff is deeply indebted to Mr. Fontes, who has given his time and efforts to help us plan our yearbook. A teacher of Business Law and Bookkeeping, Mr. Fontes is a graduate of Boston College and Bridgewater State College. Now, a resident of New Bedford, he enjoys fishing and model railroading.

ALDA HAYWARD

Completing her second year at Fairhaven High School, Mrs. Hayward has ably performed her duties as guidance secretary. She comes from Brockton and attended the Brockton Business School. Mrs. Hayward enjoys playing her electric organ and painting.

PRISCILLA P. HILLER

Mrs. Hiller, a native of Arlington, Massachusetts, attended Nasson College. She is now a teacher of English here. Among her many interests and hobbies are writing poetry, record collecting, walking and swimming.

MARGARET C. HOWLAND, B.A.

Graduated from Wheaton College, Mrs. Howland now teaches Junior and Senior English. Aside from her school work, Mrs. Howland finds enjoyment in cooking, reading, and listening to the problems of all teenagers!!

MARGUERITE A. JOHNSON

Mrs. Johnson, the Supervisor of Vocal Music in the town of Fairhaven, is just finishing her eighteenth year as a teacher in the public school system. She attended the Maine Conservatory of Music, the New England Conservatory of Music, and the University of New Hampshire. Her many avocations include composing music, entertaining the Double Quartet, trying out new recipes, and hunting for tenors at Fairhaven High School.

MABEL H. KNIPE, A.B., M.A.

For many years, Fairhaven High Seniors have memorized Shakespearean lines and joined in the stimulating discussions in Mrs. Knipe's English classes. Head of the English department, Mrs. Knipe was born in Manchester, England, and graduated from Tufts and Boston Universities. We know of her particular interest in gardening from the collection of plants in Room 16. Among her other hobbies are sewing, housekeeping, reading and writing poetry.

VIRGINIA KOWAL, B.A.

An alumna of University of Massachusetts, Miss Kowal majored in zoology. She is now a teacher of general science and biology. In her free time Miss Kowal paints, raises African Violets, and enjoys movie-going.

HARRY LEE KUMMER, A.B., M. In Ed.

Mr. Kummer, our enthusiastic line coach, attended Wagner College and Bridgewater State College. Besides working in athletics, he teaches Geography and World History. Among his various hobbies are gardening, wood-working, and, of course, participating in sports.

IONA J. KUNZ, B.S.

Mrs. Kunz is the type of teacher every school is glad to have. A Mathematics teacher in Fairhaven High School, she varies her instruction with spirited verse and stories of interest. Mrs. Kunz graduated from Simmons College and cites gardening, painting, sailing, and studying as her main interests.

ROBERT C. LAWTON, B.M.E., ED.M.

Never too busy to give extra help to his students, Mr. Lawton is head of the Mathematics Department at Fairhaven High School. He graduated from Northeastern University and later from Boston University. A very active person, Mr. Lawton works to keep his home and yard in good condition. When he has accomplished this, he also enjoys listening to his High Fidelity phonograph.

ELIZABETH MANDELL

Mrs. Mandell, a Mattapoisett resident, instructs art classes at Fairhaven High School. Born in Somerville, Massachusetts, she graduated from the School of the Museum of Fine Arts. Outside of school she enjoys art, block-printing, and portrait painting.

MARGARET A. MANGHAN, B.S., M.S.

Miss Margaret A. Manghan is a teacher of English, Spanish and Reading in Fairhaven High School. She has attended Boston College and Bridgewater State Teachers' College. Miss Manghan has never had time to develop any hobbies, for she has been too busy sharing her knowledge with others.

JOHN B. MALCOLM, B.S.

Summertime is Mr. Malcolm's favorite season of the year. Any sunny day one can see him out on the water either fishing or sailing. This sportive mathematics teacher attended New Bedford Institute of Technology and classes at Bridgewater State College.

EVELYN MARTIN

Mrs. Martin is one of the best known people in Fairhaven High School. She has been secretary to the principal for nineteen years. Herself a graduate of Fairhaven High School, Mrs. Martin also attended Kinyon Secretarial School. Now in her free time she enjoys sewing, cooking, and gardening.

GEORGE McGAW, B.S.

Mr. McGaw, our industrial arts teacher, graduated from Fitchburg State Teachers' College. A very adventurous person, Mr. McGaw enjoys flying and woodworking.

EDITH M. MOORE, B.A.

A graduate of Wheaton College, Mrs. Moore teaches Sophomore and Junior English. Though a true gardening enthusiast, she lists among her many outside activities animals and of course "her grandchildren."

JEANNETTE MULVEY

Mrs. Mulvey, our foods teacher, was educated at Bridgewater State College. She has been teaching here for ten years and is a resident of Fairhaven. Enjoying the study of new techniques in food preparation, she is also interested in charity work.

MARIE R. NOYER, B.S. in Ed.

Mrs. Noyer, head of the Business Department, graduated from Salem State Teachers' College and now teaches office practice. Politics and the theatre are among her varied interests. Mrs. Noyer finds relaxation in gardening, knitting and furniture refinishing.

DIANA OLIVEIRA, B.S. in Business Ed.

Mrs. Oliveira, who teaches typing, is from our own town of Fairhaven. She attended Katherine Gibbs Secretarial School and Salem State Teachers' College. Mrs. Oliveira has many new interests, for she and her husband have recently become the proud owners of a new home. Gardening and traveling are among Mrs. Oliveira's favorite hobbies.

WILLIAM OLIVEIRA, B.S.

Mr. Oliveira is new to Fairhaven High School this year. A graduate of Bridgewater State College, he teaches civics, geography, and history. Social studies aren't this teacher's only interests, however, for he also enjoys photography and bowling.

AVIS M. PILLSBURY, Ph.B.

Miss Pillsbury attended both Brown University and the University of Illinois and now is head librarian at Fairhaven High School. With this job she selects and processes books and magazines to make them available to all students. Her comment on librarians: "We don't know everything, but we know where to find it."

RUTH ROBINSON, B.S. in Ed.

Mrs. Robinson, a Stenography and Transcription teacher at Fairhaven High School, graduated from Salem State Teachers' College. In her free time she enjoys cooking, reading, and also braiding rugs.

WILLIAM SCHIMMEL, B.A.

Mr. Schimmel is a newcomer to our faculty this year. He is our Driver Education teacher and also the director of our Senior Play. A graduate of Emerson College, he is presently supplementing his education by taking courses in philosophy and audio-visual aids at Bridgewater State College. Among his varied interests are radio direction, television plays, water skiing, and guitar music.

MARY SONG, B.S., B.A.

Miss Song is a graduate of Ewha Women's University, Mary Mount College, and Assumption College. She is now finishing her Master's degree in French. Having come to the United States because of her interest in languages, Miss Song is now studying English and French Literature. In her hours of relaxation, our new French teacher enjoys classical music.

MARIANNE SEVERANCE, B.S. in Business

Miss Severance is a graduate of Simmons College, where she majored in advertising. At Fairhaven High School she teaches all business math classes and one class in General Business. She enjoys swimming, skiing, and general reading.

FERNANDO SILVA, B.S.

Graduated from New Bedford Institute of Technology and Bridgewater State College, Mr. Silva teaches general science, chemistry and physics. When not molding the minds of Fairhaven High School students with scientific methods and theories, Mr. Silva enjoys fishing and listening to his fine collection of high fidelity records.

EDWARD F. TRAINOR, B.S., M.A.

Mr. Trainor, a welcomed comeback to the faculty, received his degrees in History from Boston University and Bridgewater State College. He now teaches U.S. History, Economics, and Problems of Democracy. After school hours, Mr. Trainor finds relaxation in bowling and reading.

WAYNE W. WILSON, B.S.

A graduate of Springfield College, Mr. Wilson has guided the members of our J.V. basketball team through many exciting victories. He and his young wife are now the proud parents of a little boy, who is bound to be "a future Fairhaven High School basketball star."

WALTER D. WOOD, A.B., M.A.

Mr. Wood, our assistant principal and physics teacher hails from Worcester, Massachusetts, and is a graduate of Clark University. His kindly face has been a familiar one in our halls for thirty-two years, and we are deeply indebted to him for his contributions to education and youth. In his spare time, Mr. Wood enjoys reading non-fiction and scientific works, walking, and studying nature.

JOSEPH GUAY, B.A.

Mr. Guay, who is attending Assumption College, is participating in the internship program at that school. Under this plan he teaches one half year and then proceeds toward the acquisition of his Master's degree in education.

The Business Course at Fairhaven High School is planned to prepare students to take their place in the business of today. Following graduation, students have an opportunity to further their education or to apply their skills immediately in office work. Invaluable training in stenography, typing, bookkeeping and business law is offered. Office practice permits students to familiarize themselves with various filing methods and business machines. Training in other such fields as languages, sciences, and social studies has also given our students the opportunity to expand their abilities for future careers of interest.

THE LINEUP! ! !

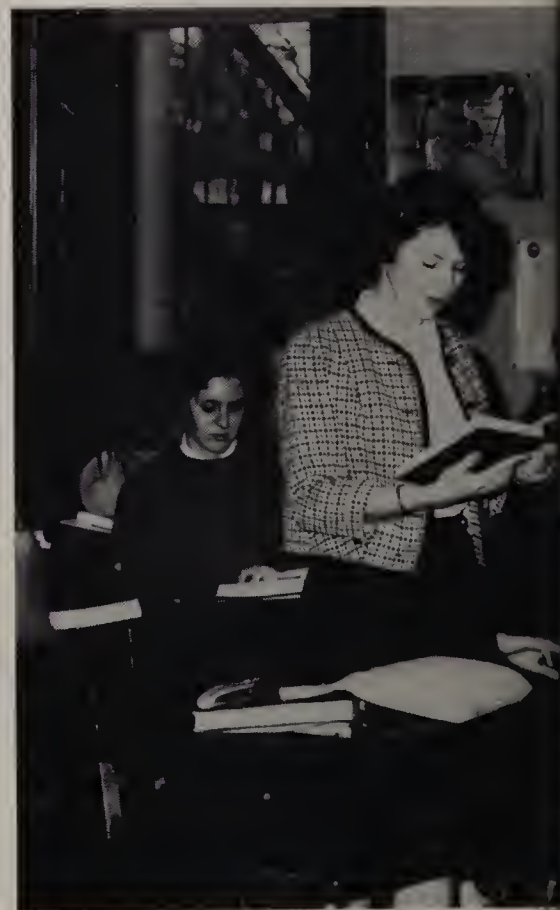

Language—the bridge of friendship the road to peace. We, the students of Fairhaven High School, strive to master not only our own language but that of other countries. We cannot overrate the importance of being able to speak and to understand a foreign language in these our troubled times.

Linguam — pons amicitiae, via ad pacem. Nos, discipuli Scholae Superae in Portu Amoeno non solum linguam nostram sed etiam illam patriarum aliarum superare contendimus. Necessitatem loquendi et cognoscendi linguam alienam his temporibus difficilibus superefferre non possumus.

Social studies not only gives us the opportunity to become better acquainted with our own country, but also with our neighbors abroad. Under the able guidance of Mr. Clement, Mr. Trainor, and Mr. Kummer, we obtain a better understanding of the constantly changing world situations.

In Fairhaven High School there are innumerable opportunities for practical experience in the fields of industrial arts and homemaking. In Freshman year the girls can learn basic skills in cooking and sewing. How many dishes of eggs a' la goldenrod has Mrs. Mulvey tasted?! The boys are then introduced to the intricacies of mechanical drawing and shop work. Trial, error; attempt—and finally success! A smile of satisfaction beams across the happy student's face.

"Healthfulness and Cheerfulness

President Kennedy has spoken of the importance of physical fitness. The town of Fairhaven recognizes this, and each Fairhaven High School student is required to take two years of physical education. The girls participate in such sports as softball, volleyball, basketball and tennis. The boys' vigorous course includes basketball, football, tennis, soccer, and weightlifting. All these exercises enable each student to maintain a healthy mind and body, which are essential for happiness and success in life.

Class History

Looking back over our four years in Fairhaven High School, we discover that our freshman year wasn't so long ago. None of us will forget that first confused day in the big high school. In this, our first year, we elected William Perry to be our president; Margaret Dearden, vice-president; Richard Litchfield, secretary; and Steven Toland, treasurer. With the aid of our advisor, Mrs. Hiller, we sold gift wrapping paper as our chosen class project. Later in the year we joined with the upper classes to help sponsor a school dance called the "Football Bounce."

This being our first year in high school, it was rather early to talk of honor and glory, yet we strove to reach the high goals our predecessors set.

On the warm days of September, 1959, we started our Sophomore year. We were joined by the lively and friendly students from Mattapoisett. Near the beginning of the year, our executive board put on an all-school dance. Money for our awaiting senior year was made by selling candy. Boy! was it delicious! After huffing and puffing up the long flight of stairs, many of us learned the laws of Biology. When we were Sophomores, our marvelous and hard working basketball team made their way up the ladder to the semi-finals in Tech Tourney. As leaders in our class we chose William Perry, president; Solveig Knutsen, vice-president; Margaret Dearden, secretary; and Kathy Townley, treasurer. This year we were under the guidance of Mr. Fontes.

Our junior year was highlighted by many interesting events. Very ably led by our president Bill Perry and his efficient fellow officers: Karen Behn, vice-president; Richard Litchfield, secretary; and Ross Hopkins, treasurer, we found that our junior year proved to be very profitable. Under the inspiring guidance of our class advisor, Mrs. Hiller, we sold magazines for our class project to help pay for the expenses of our senior year.

Our Junior Prom was the biggest highlight of the year. We chose Karen Behn as queen to reign over the prom while we all danced and had a terrific evening.

Junior Day finally arrived. Here on our day the present senior class turned over the responsibility of the school into our hands. It made us feel quite proud and anxious to think that we were getting so close to our senior year.

Thus our junior year ended. Filled with a thousand happy memories we closed our year with a tear, for this would be the last year that our Mattapoissett friends would attend school with us. Junior year was a very unique experience as each one of us looked forward to being the upper-classmen—Seniors.

Our senior year began differently from the others as it was two and a half weeks later in starting, because of repairs. When we returned, we found new laboratories, new lights, new floors, and a new look to the traditional old building that we would soon have to leave. We chose Bill Perry as president, Karen Behn as vice-president, Richard Litchfield as secretary, and John Hall as treasurer. Our advisors were Mrs. Hiller, Mr. Malcolm, Miss Kowal, and Mr. Oliveira. We again had a magazine campaign to help pay for our graduation. Roberta Turner had been Fairhaven's American Field Service representative to France, while Rosalinda Pelagio from the Philippines was our foreign exchange student.

Solveig Knutsen and Sue Masten joined the cheerleading squad and helped lead our teams on to victory. Mike, Skip, Bob, Pete, and John's performances on the court enabled us to play for the third year in Tech Tourney.

Our Senior Play, "A Howling Success," written by Mr. Robert C. Schimmel, was presented on March 23, a week before the annual Pops Concert.

June 8 was the beginning of our traditional ceremonies. We marched into the auditorium for the Junior Day exercises, our last obligation as the Senior Class of 1962.

That night our Senior Prom was held at Friends Academy in Dartmouth. Sunday was our Vesper Service, which was held in the old auditorium. Monday, we had our banquet, which was a time of joy and a time of tears. It was the portal of adulthood, yet it was also the last time we would all be together before graduation. Wednesday, June 13, we marched again into the Larch Avenue Auditorium, this time to receive our diplomas.

We shall never forget all the friends, good times, and instruction we had at Fairhaven High School. In years to come, these days in high school will rank among our fondest memories.

Class Officers

Huddled together for the purpose of solving the innumerable problems of Senior Year, the class officers have met to discuss: Who is going to be in charge of the magazine campaign?, What to choose for a class gift?, When to have the Senior Banquet?, Where to have the Senior Prom?, How to elicit class dues? They have remained as examples of maturity and citizenship throughout the year.

EXECUTIVE BOARD:
Kathryn Smith,
Michael Fitzgerald,
Kathy Townley,
Thomas Hiller,
Margaret Dearden.

American Field Service

Rosalinda Pelagio, having left her parents and 14 year old brother in Lepanto, Mountain Province, Philippines, arrived in the U.S., August 17. She lived with Kay Amaral and her family. She took chemistry, English, U.S. History, Spanish, and public speaking. We all wish her luck in her work at the A.F.S.!

Rosie could teach the map a few things.

We anxious Juniors enter to receive

Junio

The sky was clear, and the sun was shining brightly as we marched into the Larch Avenue Auditorium for the Junior Day exercises. The day had finally arrived when we would be given the Senior mantle. Even though we were happy, we were very sad, too, because our Mattapoisett friends would not be at Fairhaven with us that next year.

The double quartet furnished us with music along with an instrumental selection by Anne Thompson and Peggy Dearden.

Karen Behn was presented with the College Club book award, while Mike Fitzgerald re-received the Harvard Club Prize Book award. Michael was also awarded a trip to Chicago in the fall for the National Youth Conference on the Atom. Marilyn Besse, Germaine Gagne, Ross Hopkins, and Roberta Turner were the Juniors awarded letters for maintaining an average of 90 or better during that year.

Our yellow rose buds signified the freshness of youth which would bloom into the beauty of adulthood. We were ready to take our first real step in that direction. We marched out of the auditorium as the Senior Class of 1962.

Our Junior Prom

A hush falls as the royal party enters.

A group of Mattapoissett students and their escorts pause for a picture.

Song of the Nile

"The Song Of The Nile," the most exciting evening of our Junior year, came at last on May 5.

Greeted were the patrons and patronesses, Mr. and Mrs. Lynnwood P. Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Entwistle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood, Mrs. William D. Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Malcolm, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gamble, Mrs. Emerson Hiller, Mrs. Richard E. Mandell, and Miss Virginia Kowal. We danced to the enchanting music of Ray Besse and his Orchestra, amidst an Egyptian setting enhanced with authentically decorated columns and lintels, Egyptian fans, live palms, and sacred figures dancing on the draped walls.

Lovely Karen Behn was crowned by last year's queen, Carolyn Martin, on a stage which was made picturesque by a painting depicting a beautiful desert scene. Karen reigned over seven lovely girls—Deborah Wing, lady-in-waiting; Roberta Tavares, Ann Margaret Rezendes, Sharon Baumgarner, Judy Furnans, Loretta Medeiros, and Charlene Fourcher. The dancers walked before their queen and her court in a ceremonious grand march.

At 11:30 it was time to leave our long-awaited event. As we bade farewell to our Junior Prom, we knew that the image of that evening will always be retained.

Frank Hendriques ponders why he and Kay Amaral won Most Flirtatious.

Best all around-the world: Karen Behn and Bill Perry.

Our swinging athletes: Charlotte Lawton and Michael Fitzgerald.

Best natured: Debbie Wing and George Herick. They don't argue; they shoot!

Gail Bryan and Bob Lebeau dream of life outside the bars as class dreamers.

Eric Nordeng and Karol Duarte keep things popping as our class clowns.

Class Will

We, the class of 1962, being in not so sound state of mind or body, and knowing the uncertainty of this life, do hereby bequeath to the little kids, hereafter to be known as our successors, all of what we have accumulated in our days at Fairhaven High School.

Mike Fitzgerald leaves his magic basketball to Steve Vining.

Steve Toland leaves his superior nature to any junior who can fill his shoes.

Kathy Smith leaves her bottle of peroxide to Norma Carruth.

Sallejane Andrews leaves her Metrecal to Rhea Carle.

Joyce Howland leaves her vibrating larynx to Mr. Entin to put in a bottle of alcohol.

French III class leaves Les Miserables gladly.

Carolyn Whittier refuses to leave her bomb to anybody.

Robert Brittain leaves his monogrammed seat in aftersession to Mr. Wood's legion.

Betty Duval leaves her giggle-giggle to a sour-faced junior who needs it.

Richard Litchfield leaves his speech class harem to Arnie Haines.

Frank Henriques leaves his cast to his brother, Mike.

Anne Thompson refuses to leave her road maps of Maine.

Mary Ann Polchlopek leaves her "Most Unpronounceable Name" title to Richard Kszystyniak.

Paul Martin leaves his broken drum to any heavy-handed drummer.

Debby Wing leaves her Future Nurses bandages to any mangled Junior.

Randy Therrien and Eddy Rose leave their strikes and spares to Julio Oliveira.

First period driver Ed. class leaves a big alarm clock to Mr. Schimmel.

Bethany Hawes leaves her corn cob pipe to any junior who needs one.

Terry Coelho leaves her "hot" '55 Nash to the next mechanic who can fix it.

Tom Hiller leaves a flashy orange pole to future FHS pole vaulters.

Dick Lang leaves his red empty raisin boxes to the next editor who likes red empty raisin boxes . . . ???

The class leaves a family size bottle of Bufferin to Mr. Fontes to cure his ills from advising us.

Bill Perry leaves his number 22 to any quarterback who can fill his shoulder-pads.

Robin Holmes leaves his swivel hips to Bill Holt.

Barbara Jachna leaves her loud voice to any future Pep Squad officer.

Roberta Tavares leaves her petiteness to Donna Rogers.

Thus on this day, June 13, we do declare this last will and testament and hereby appoint Mr. Fontes executor.

"Oh, my aching hump . . ."

Class Prophecy

In twenty short years from now, where shall we all be? We thunk and thunk, and gazed into our salt crystal ball (it's square you know) and these predictions are what we came out with. In 1982 you can laugh at us if we are wrong.

In the big field of science, the alumni of Fairhaven High School will make a great contribution. Maurice Hevey and Anne Marie Ulewicz will be leading a safari into the fourth dimension. Dennis Cunningham and Judy Arruda will be gluing together broken test tubes. David Beaulieu will be selling crooked prescriptions to Sharon Baumgarner. Joan Ponte will be the first lady on the moon and will find there a certain teacher. Butch Anderson will be cabin boy on the U.S.S. Nautilus II. Loretta Medeiros will be a lab technician. Eddy Rose will be drafting plans for a new space ship. Norman Fonteneau will be a master chemist. Alison Hood will be dodging radio active fallout. Henry Olden will be flying non-stop to the moon with a jet—??

Also in medicine some of us will play an outstanding part. Richard Lang will be professor of Surgery at Johns Hopkins, after he's made his first Lick Dang monster. In the future Marilyn Bessee will be straightening out crooked "joints"?! Terry Coelho will be taking care of people coming in and going out. Kathy Townley will be a witch doctor. Anita Lopes will be a food sampler—no specialty. Anna Margaret Gardner and Bob McKay will be horse doctors.

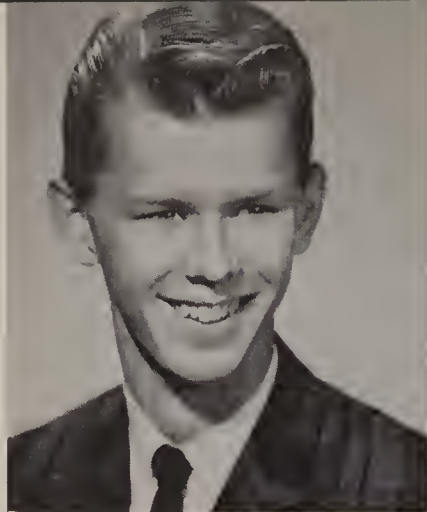

In the mad world of business and politics, our mad kids'll be there. Debby Wing will be peddling bottles of peroxide and Charlene O'Grady will be her first customer. Germaine Gagne and Kay Amaral will be fashion experts. Barbara Jachna will be chewing their ears off in the Senate. Russell Quintin and James McHenry will be on Wall Street—sweeping! Jackie Brennan will be manufacturing foam rubber bowling balls. Michael Almeida will be printing his own books on the problems of marriage.

Robert Sylvia will be repairing only compact cars. Sandy Silva will be a kindly social worker. Our own Kathy Smith will be editor of Mad Magazine. Grace Gallagher and Charlene Fourcher will be airline hostesses. Donald Gifford will be a state policeman. Bev Fournier will be secretary of the Merchants Bank. Paula Cabral will be teaching us the new dance craze of the year. Dave DeSouza will be a businessman with the craziest briefcase this side of Detroit. Little Leo Cordeiro will be a big millionaire. Beverly Ferreira will be a telephone operator along with Judy Wordell. Bill Everett will be in construction. Paul Francis and Paul Martin will be vying for the job of mayor of New Bedford.

Little of the talent of Fairhaven High School will go to waste. Everett Lloyd will be a cartoonist, Charles Motta will be a photographer of something, Anne Thompson and Bethany Hawes will be making their own brew. Bob Wrightington and Sharyn Dickenson will be writing their own hep dictionary. Ann Margaret Rezendes will be a lion tamer. Ira Haskell will be a second Rembrandt. Dave Benoit will be manufacturing hair pieces. Peggy Dearden will still be writing on Plato. Stewey Campbell will be a grease monkey. (or is it greasy monk?) Jackie Custodio will be another Louise Llewellyn. Old Art Parent will be a pin-boy.

Finally, we'll never lose our sense of humor. Brian Patenaude and Steve Toland will be in rest homes with dislocated pelves from Twisting. Jimmy Neagus will be a first-rate jelly bean polisher. Skip Hall will be the "Before" in a weight-gaining ad, and Robin Holmes will be the "After." Wally Rose will be a custom pretzel designer. Carolyn Whittier and Liz Bachman will be hermits in New Hampshire. Stanley Viegas will be a lighthouse keeper in the middle of the Sahara Desert. Janet Manchester will be a woman psychararatrist, with quiet Joyce Howland as her first patient. Erik Nordeng will be the first "wealthy" comedian. Carol Paiva will be a detective. Serina Hoines will be a mad homewrecker. Susan Masten will be an old-maid school teacher raising cockeyed cats. Rebecca Dearden will be a chimney sweep. Let's all hope for the best and be prepared for the worst.

"Constant labor of one uniform kind destroys the intensity and flow of a man's spirits, which find recreation and delight in mere change of activity."

Honor Society

The Fairhaven High School Honor Society, although small in number, is not lacking in drive. It is the purpose of the society to develop and encourage an interest in high scholastic standards within the student body. Although the society is small in size, initiation in the spring will raise the membership so that the society will be a greater credit to Fairhaven High.

It is the wish of the members of the Honor Society that the whole student body strive for higher scholastic achievements.

Members of the Honor Society are: K. Smith—Treasurer, W. Perry—member, G. Gagne—President, M. Besse—Secretary, K. Behn—Vice-President.

Student Council members are: N. Bouley, S. Souza, K. Townley, W. Perry, M. Schmidt, K. Behn, N. Carvalho, S. Almedia; second row: P. Baker, J. Delano, P. La Marre, H. Dixon, N. Pacheco, J. Laverdiere, K. Texeira, S. Morgan; third row: R. Pelagio, S. Entin, S. Messier, W. Holt, R. Litchfield, P. Renfree.

Student Council

The purpose of the Student Council, as stated in its constitution, is "to assist in the management of Fairhaven High School, to foster good school spirit, and to encourage the spirit of democracy in the student body."

This year the Council, under the leadership of William Perry, President; Kathy Townley, Vice-President; and Majorie Schmidt, Secretary-Treasurer, has striven to fulfill this purpose.

With the help of its advisor, Mrs. Doris Bruce, the Student Council has sold book covers and candy, sponsored an American Field Service tea, attended Student Council Conventions, and sponsored Student Government Day in which many students participated. Rules for student dress were drawn up by the Council along with rules for the use of board space for student activities.

Key Club

This has been another outstanding year of achievement for the Fairhaven High School Key Club.

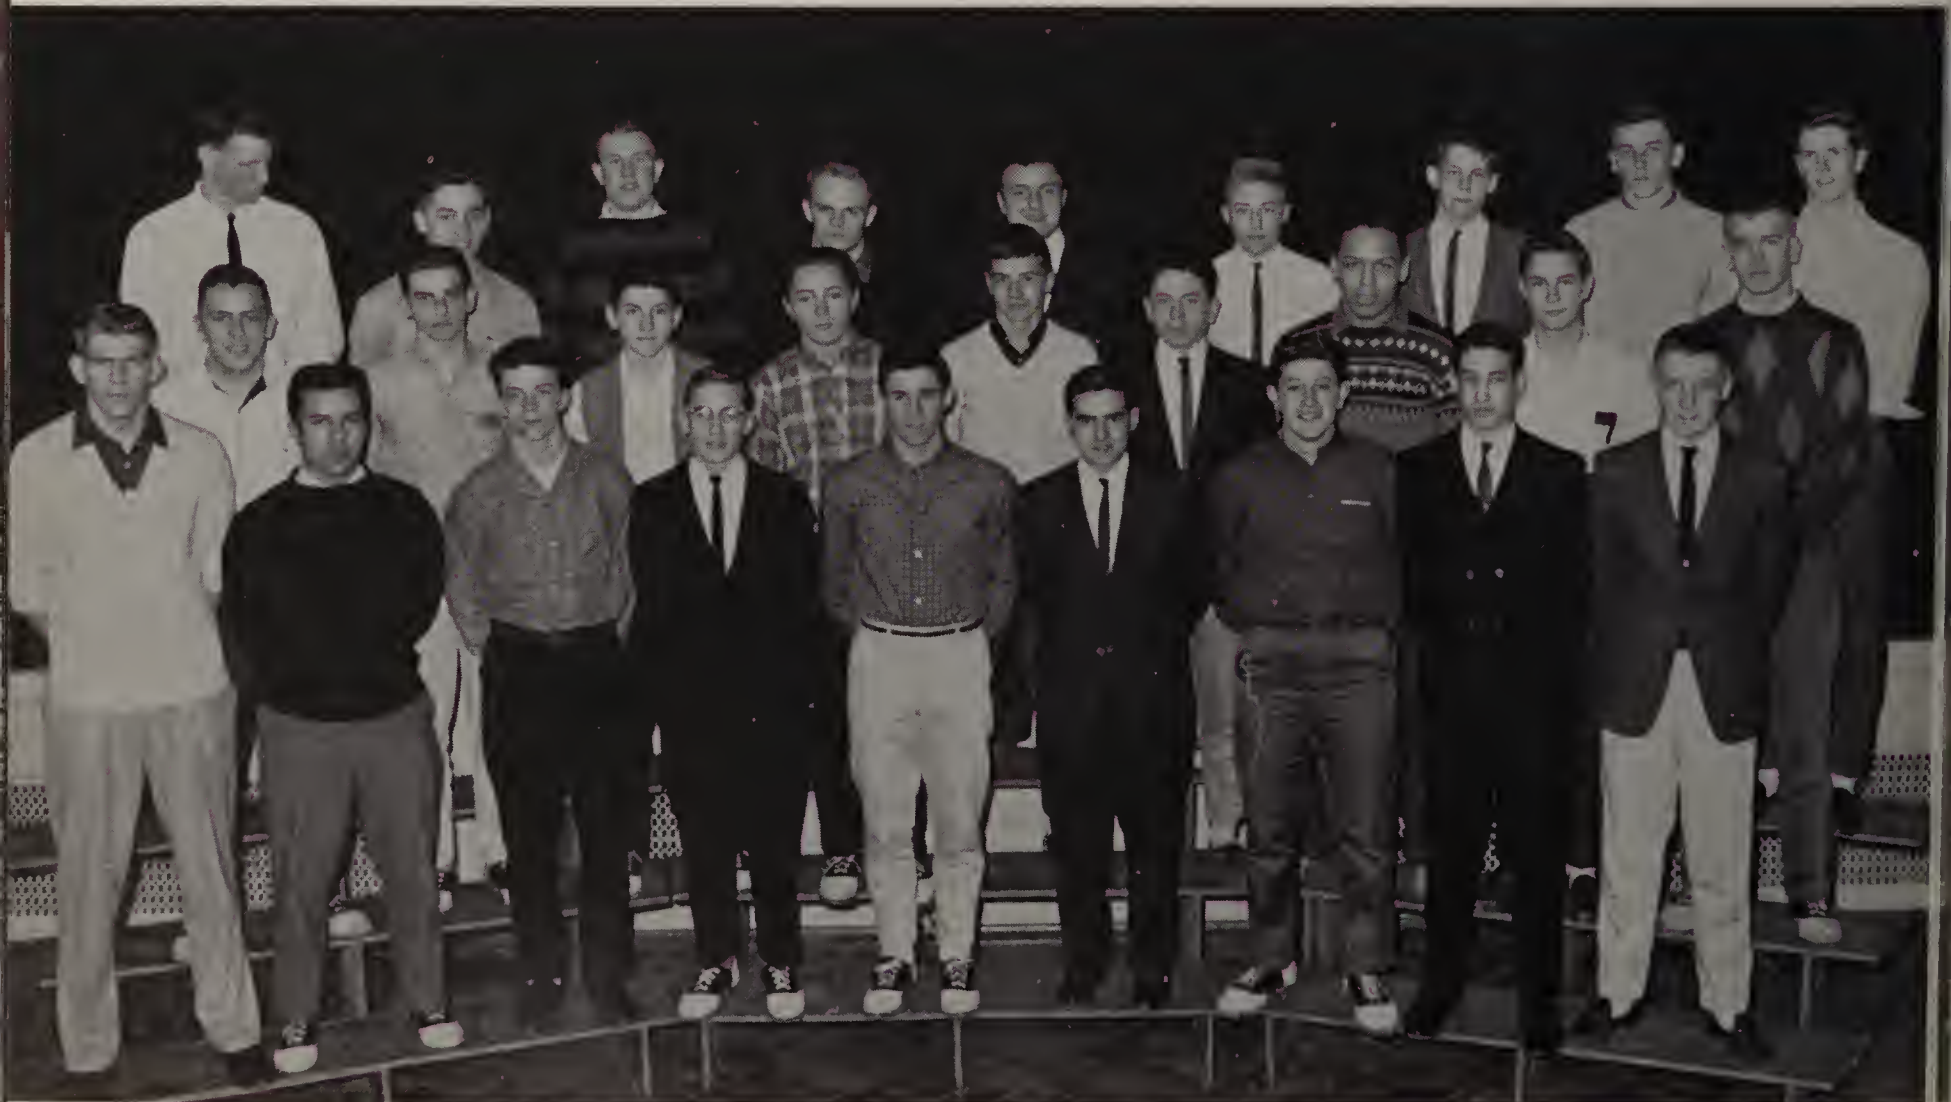

The Key Club sponsored many school and community projects this year. They held a tea for the new teachers, provided a field trip for honor-roll students, and held a post-game football rally. The club also provided toys for mentally retarded children and, throughout the year, rendered services to Our Ladies Haven.

The Key Club raised money by selling Christmas trees and home-made fudge. They sponsored numerous dances and planned the Key Club-faculty game. The club also helped sponsor the Valentine Ball.

Because of its many helpful services to the school and the community, the Key Club is a fine organization to have at Fairhaven High School.

First row: S. Toland, W. Perry, B. Patenaude, C. Mitchell, P. Souza, P. Martin, L. Jason, S. Faria, R. Tate; second row: P. Silvia, W. Duffy, M. Henriques, S. Ferreria, R. Kszystyniak, F. Cushing, R. Rose, N. Locke, M. Anderson; third row: K. Browning, W. Leshyk, W. Holt, G. Herrick, A. Parent, L. Patasini, R. Corson, P. Francis, J. Battani.

Traffic Squad Officers: D. Knox, M. Langlois, K. Behn, R. Kzystyniak, W. Perry, A. Parent.

Traffic Squad

When the evaluation committee visited Fairhaven High School, they commended the school because the students passed so quietly. We attribute this commendation to the able Traffic Squad members.

The Traffic Squad is composed of members of all four classes and fulfills its duties successfully.

You tell 'em Marty!

Debating Club

The Debating Team is new this year at Fairhaven High and hopes to establish itself as a credit to the school. Although the team is slowly working towards its first debate, the desire of its members has held it together. Without the drive and ambition of Mr. Kummer there would be no debating team, for it was he who established the group although he was only a pioneer in this field.

The members hope to have several practice debates this year so that next year they may enter the Debating League under the able leadership of its underclassmen.

First row: D. Lopes, R. Fonsceca, L. Texeira, T. Rego, B. Francis; second row: S. Hoines, G. Lawson, J. Gobell, J. Wordell.

Homemaking Club

At the first meeting of the Homemaking Club, the following officers were chosen: President — Lavern Texeira; Vice-President — Barbara Francis; Secretary — Diane Lopes; and Treasurer — Toni Rego. Every activity period the club assembles under the able leadership and guidance of Mrs. Doran, the Sewing instructor.

At the meetings the girls knit and sew and exchange ideas. As future wives and mothers, these girls certainly have much valuable experience to their credit.

A future "Dior" perhaps?

French

Club

Officers of La Circle Francaise are: Secretary—Joyce Howland; Vice-President—Margaret Dearden; President—Kathryn Smith; Treasurer—Marilyn Besse.

Every other Friday a most interesting group meets in Room 11. This is the French Club, under the guidance of M. Dufour. The purpose of this club is to increase the members' understanding of French by the fluent oral use of this language. Besides conversing in French, the club occasionally watches French movies, and listens to guest speakers. Each year an amount of money is raised as a scholarship for the most promising member.

This year a new member has been added. He is the mascot, Jacques-Pierre, a French poodle.

Rioux, K. Smith; third row: D. Knox, J. Spooner, M. Dearden, K. Amaral, M. Besse, E. Bachman, T. Coelho, K. Lawton.

Spanish Club

"El Club Espanol" is the name of a group of Spanish students who meet twice a month. The club is formed to promote the fluent oral use of the language and to learn more of the customs and culture of Spanish speaking countries. Each meeting is conducted entirely in Spanish under the direction of Miss Margaret A. Mangham. Students give special reports and undertake special projects such as a Spanish play. Upon completion of the school year, the funds in the club treasury are used to purchase a prize for a student who has achieved excellence in Spanish.

Future Teachers

The success of a country lies within the education of its youth. Teaching, therefore, is one of the most important professions into which a person may enter. The Fairhaven High School offers to its students a Future Teachers Club, which enables its members to learn the fundamentals of teaching. Members are from all four classes.

As often as possible the club meets under the able guidance of Mrs. Moore, the advisor of the Mary A. Sale Chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

The club raises money through various projects in order to give a scholarship in the name of Chester M. Downing to a deserving senior member.

Officers of the Future Teachers club are: S. Jackson, S. Andrews, C. O'Grady, N. Pacheco.

Future Nurses

The Future Nurses club is composed of girls in the ninth through the twelfth grades who are interested in furthering their educations in the medical field. The elected officers are: President—Debbie Wing, Vice-President—Carolyn Whittier, Secretary—Diane Ponte, and Treasurer—Sharyn Dickinson. The advisors are Mrs. Louise Dennie, R.N., the school nurse, and Mrs. Keith. The members acquire their knowledge of the medical profession by visiting various hospitals and through group discussions. Money has been raised through cake sales and the collection of dues. The money which was raised goes toward the expenses of the club and also towards a scholarship which is awarded to a future nurse. The meetings which take place once a month inform each member of the joys and responsibilities of the medical profession.

"We are Fairhaven High and no one could be prouder!!" This is the feeling of every Pep Squad member. With vim and vigor, the members of the Pep Squad aid the cheerleaders in cheering our teams on to victory.

Led by its active officers Ann Rezendes, President; Kathy Townley, Vice-President; and Barbara Jachna, Secretary-Treasurer, the Pep Squad marched with the band for our traditional Thanksgiving Day Football Game with Dartmouth. The girls were dressed identically in navy blue kilts with matching knee socks, and white blouses which they purchased this year.

This year the Pep Squad was aided by a Boys' Pep Squad, consisting of over a hundred boys, and organized by Steve Bouley. Their cheers were an asset to every game.

Cheerleaders

"Fairhaven, Fairhaven, almighty . . ."

is a familiar cry heard at all football and basketball games. This and many other peppy and spirited cheers are led by the Fairhaven High cheerleaders. They cheer whole-heartedly at each and every game—home and away. These girls put in much time practicing every day after school from September to June.

Besides cheering our teams on to victory, the cheerleaders have sponsored dances and food sales. The proceeds of which events are used to pay for their new uniforms. They have put on several pep rallies to increase the loyalty and spirit of the student body of F.H.S.

The girls also participate each year at Mansfield and Spencer. Each year they have ranked high in Massachusetts competition at these cheering tournaments. In the past F.H.S. has been proud of its cheering squad and this year is no exception.

Our peppy cheerleaders are: Sallejane Andrews; Karen Behn, head cheerleader; Charlene Fourcher; second row: Susan Benjamin; Joyce Spooner; Susan Masten; Majorie Schmidt; Solviæg Knutsen.

Members of "A Howling Success"; A. Rezendes, J. Howland, M. Moseley, L. Cordeiro, J. Manchester, K. Amaral, E. Bachman; Rear: R. Lang, W. Peirce, F. Henriques, J. Brennan, M. Andersen, Mr. Schimmel.

Senior Play

"Why don't you like me???" "Shenandoah" asks "Herbie."

Our Senior play was literally "A Howling Success" not, however, without months and months of work at rehearsals. The cast brought alive the story of a distraught teenage boy in love. Under the direction of Mr. Schimmel, who has directed radio and television productions, the cast put on a brilliant performance.

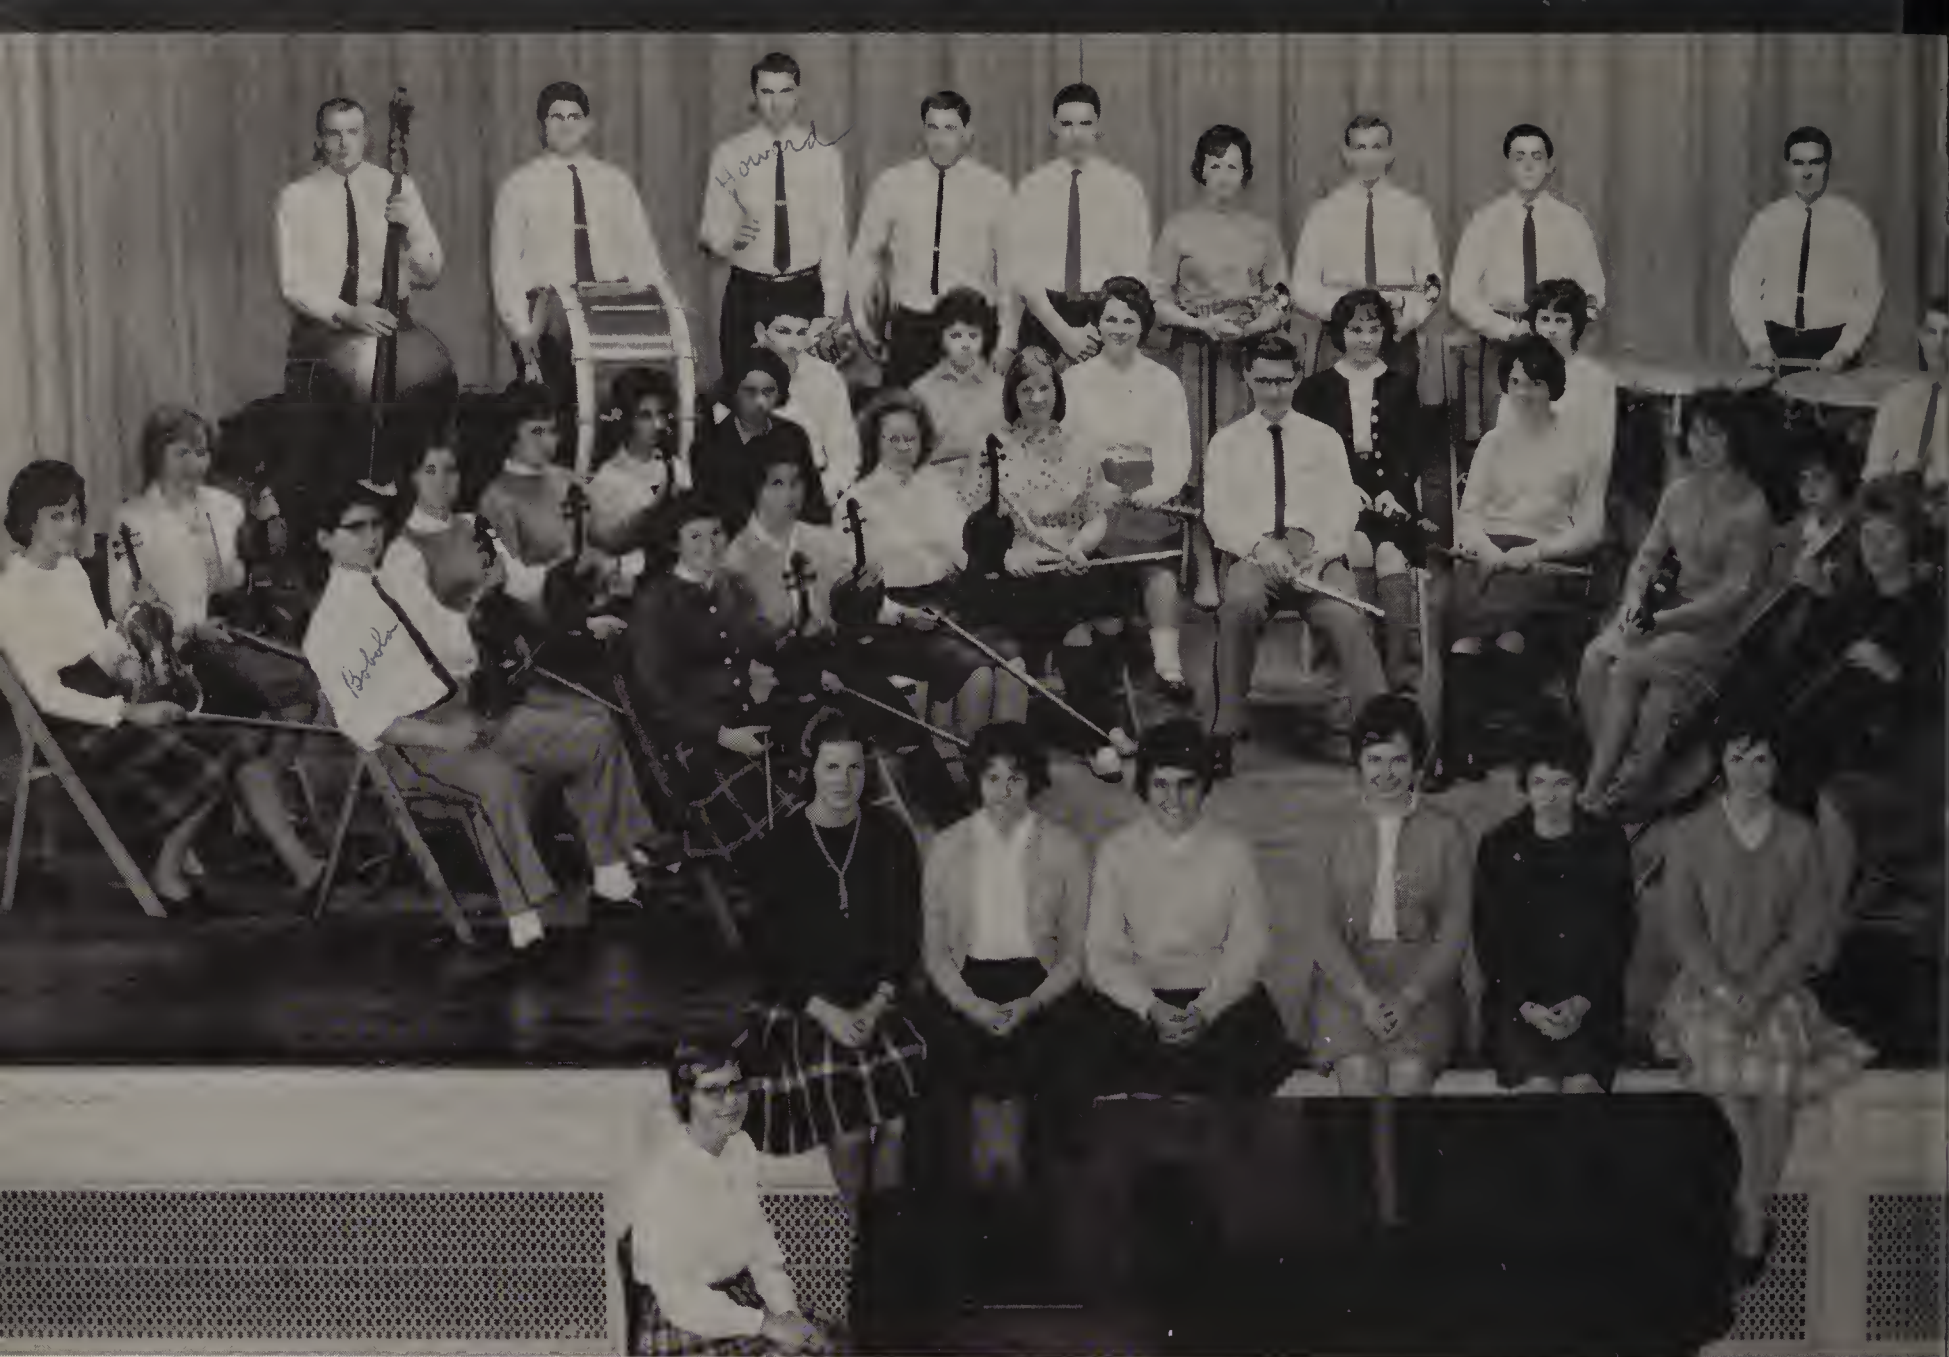

Charles Motta and Wayne Pires pose for a picture with their favorite friend.

Audio-Visual

"Lights off . . . roll the film," and the members of the Audio-Visual Club show another interesting and informative film to the students of Fairhaven High School. Under the direction of Mr. Dufour, these boys have learned how to operate skillfully the moving-picture projectors. The school has benefited greatly from the formation of this new club.

At the piano: D. Knox, L. Risdal, M. Schmidt, A. Alexion, V. Nagy, D. Wing, J. Manchester; first row: A. Thompson, C. Costa, G. Chadbourne, S. Wyzga, D. Sinclair, B. Hawes, J. Clafflin, J. Orchestra

The Fairhaven High School orchestra has always been highly rated in competition with other area schools. This year is no exception. Every Tuesday and Friday the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Leo Balandyk, can be heard in the addition auditorium practicing pieces such as "The Sound of Music," "Gigi," or "The Lerner and Lowe Overture," and other selections from Broadway shows.

Selected members of the orchestra have attended the All-District Concert Festivals as well as the State Festivals. The orchestra as a whole plans to attend the Auditions Festival this spring. Other activities include the Senior Play, the May Festival, and various student assemblies.

Majorettes: K. Lawton, S. Dickinson, G. Daignault; first row: M. Harrison, M. Morency, P. Maun, K. Rioux, R. Jackal, A. Thompson, D. Sinclair, S. Wyzga; second row seated: L. Shurtleff, P. Band

Marches, popular music, classical jazz, and overtures are played by the Fairhaven High School band for the school's enjoyment. In the fall one can see the band practicing for the half-time shows of the football games. During the snowy winter months, the band is busily at work preparing for the annual Pops Concert and the May Festival. In March, also, the band supports our basketball team at the Boston Gardens. Win or lose the band always supports the team. In April and in May the band is laboriously practicing music for the Auditions Festival. The selections are difficult and much practice is needed, but an "A" is our reward. In June this busy group takes a trip to Boston for the day and enjoys the music of the Boston Pops. This year the Fairhaven High School marching band will take in the Sesquicentennial Parade. The High School should take pride in another successful year of the band.

Vocal Music

The mellow tones of the many vocal groups directed by Mrs. Johnson are heard throughout the year. These groups have not only graced the halls of Fairhaven High School with their lovely voices; but they have also taken part in many community activities, the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival, and the annual Choral Concert.

Library Club

One of the most helpful activities in the high school is the Library Club. Under the guidance of the school librarian, Miss Pillsbury, the members of the club catalogue books, set up displays, and repair broken bindings. In doing so they gain valuable knowledge and skill, and at the same time do a useful service in helping to run the school library.

Art Club

Every Friday afternoon, during the last period, the Art Club meets upstairs in the tiny art room. The meetings are led by Ann Margaret Rezendes, President; Jean Alexion, Vice-President; Donna Farin, Secretary; and Richard Lang, Treasurer. Mrs. Mandell, the art teacher, is the director in charge of all the activities.

The club has attractively decorated many bulletin boards. After the Christmas play, the Art Club presented Mrs. Kunz, the director of the play, with a lovely poinsetta. The club also sent twenty dollars to Channel Two in order to aid the reconstruction of that informative station. In February the club went on one of its field trips to Boston and visited the museums.

ODE TO THE
HUTTLESTONIAN ROOM

It was to our sad surprise;
With pleadings, beggings, and cries,
The Huttlestonian group was doomed
To exist in a small little room.
It was only nine by nine,
For a closet it would do fine.
Everything in the place was stacked;
Space was the main thing we lacked.
But no one would hear the plea
From the gallant editors three,
No one would hear our call.
It was a doll house compared with the hall.
But our gallant staff made do,
So . . . well, what else could they do?
It was so small and tiny a room,
There . . . our brilliant staff . . . was doomed.

ODE TO THE
HUTTLESTONIAN STAFF

The Huttlestonian staff is true blue,
They don't stop 'til the work is through.
There's Barbara Jachna who works real hard,
And that Frank Henriques—what a card!!!
There's Marilyn Besse and Kathy Smith,
Their hours of work aren't a myth.
And those many more that are on the staff —
What they did would make you laugh.
Who can forget old Lick Dang
He supplied the raisins for the gang.
It was on raisins that they subsisted . . .
Far more than the above listed.
It's a crime for these editors to run around . . .
They should be hunted down and found
It wasn't that the staff was lazy,
It was just that they were plain CRAZY!!!

Baseball

Under the excellent coaching of Richard Norman, the Fairhaven nine put together a brilliant season climaxed by the capturing of the Bristol County Championship.

Experience, strong pitching, timely hitting, and determination helps to explain some of the reasons for the success of the 1961 team. Members of this team include: Norman Tate, Tony Rego, Captain Bob Bowman, Bob Lawton, Richard Perry, Bob Lebeau, Bill Perry, Mike Fitzgerald, Earl Macedo, Dicky Renaud, Steve Vinning, Dale Frates, Steve Bouley, and Eddie Hartigan.

Being undisputed champions of the Bristol County League, the Fairhaven team was invited to play in the Massachusetts State Tournament. Fairhaven won a surprising victory over Natick High 3-2. In the semi-finals, Fairhaven lost 6-5 to Wellesly High. Wellesly High went on to beat Brockton in the finals and capture the State Crown.

Football

As is always the case at Fairhaven High School, our football team and fans this year demonstrated outstanding spirit and sportsmanship. The team compiled a commendable record, they played many schools out of their class. Many of these schools had a far greater number of boys from which to select athletic teams. Without the late-game surges of Durfee and Coyle, Fairhaven would have topped two of Bristol County's best teams, for the score was in our favor throughout most of these games. The season was completed on Thanksgiving Day with a tremendous 22-0 victory over favored Dartmouth. Possibly more important than the way our team worked on the field was their general relationship and attitude through the season. The boys were as close to each other off the field as they were in fine teamwork on the field. The season was characterized by hard work and determination to do the very best job possible. Due to the leadership of Head Coach Cornforth, Assistant Coach Kummer, and Captains William Perry and Robin Holmes, the boys on the 1961 football team are sure to benefit in the future from the many hours spent together in work and play.

Tennis

Mr. Twarog's netmen had a more successful season than its records indicate. The experience that the team gained helped to make the season worthwhile. With six veterans returning next year it looks as though F. H. S. will once again have a creditable season. The blue will be led by captain Paul Souza.

"Here comes Big Hank"

Our Track team, under the guidance of Hal Conforth, had a very successful season. We ended up with a record of five wins, no losses, and one tie. At the Greater Boston Meet, we finished eighth out of a field of thirty-nine; at the St. John's Relays, we finished fifth, and at the State Meet and the Belmont Relays, we finished second. The Blues finished first at the Bristol County Meet.

Class of '65

We, the class of 1965, look toward our next three years at F. H. S. with apprehension and expectation.

Our first few days as Freshmen were filled with confusion and disbelief. These natural feelings were soon dispelled with the aid of the teachers and upperclassmen.

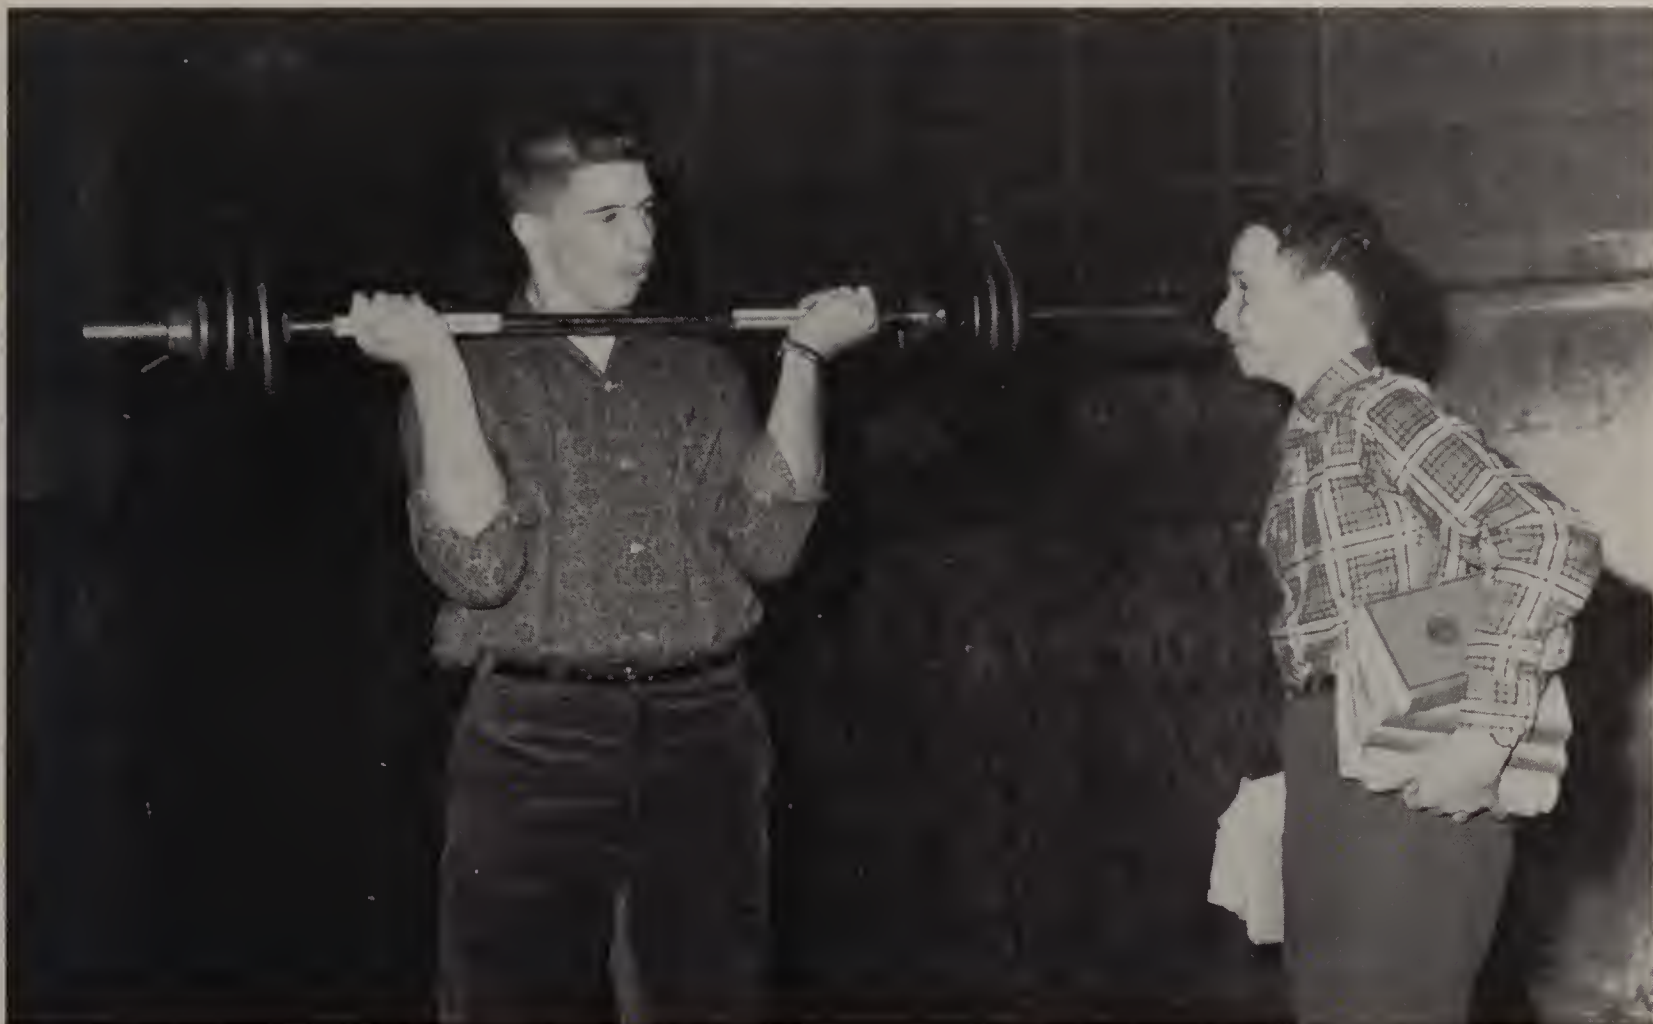

The freshmen have tried to participate in all phases of school life at Fairhaven, and we hope to be successful in our future years.

Freshmen build minds as well as bodies, here illustrated by, Steve Entin and Phil Doren.

We found the first few days at F.H.S. to be very confusing.

What did I do to deserve this? Honest, Mr. Entin, I really don't like football.

This isn't a proposal; it's a meeting of the ring committee: Linda Risdal, Steve Bouley, Bernard Lobbe and Jane Delano.

CLASS OFFICERS: Front: Holly Dixon, Jane Delano; back: Edward Locke, Peter Renfree.

Even though "l'école était en retard," our class did obtain, however, "enlightment in the darkness," and a "feeling of warmth in the cold," because of the interior face-lifting of the mechanical systems.

These hardships were minor compared to our class project, and what faces us in our Junior year.—

"Quid nos vexere?"

EXECUTIVE BOARD: Steve Bouley, Patricia Lamarre, Sheila Morgan, Linda Risdal, and Bernard Labbe.

Class of '63

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Bill Holt, Treasurer; Margie Schmidt, President; Linda Martin, Secretary; Doug Cabral, Vice-President.

EXECUTIVE BOARD:
Debbie Knox, Nancy
Carvalho, Paul
Souza, Linda
Poirier, Joyce
Spooner.

Our Junior year is filled with many memories for us. Although this year has meant increased work and study for all of us, the year has also held many pleasures. Football games and rallies, basketball games and Tech Tourney, all have given us a chance to show how proud we are of our school and its teams. All the enjoyable school dances were surpassed by that unforgettable one in every high schooler's life, the Junior Prom. College boards, class projects, and visits by the evaluators have made this year a singular one, but of course the climax of the year came on Junior Day.

In our climb towards graduation we finally have taken the step that puts us on the rung of upper-classmen. We now feel that we are an integral part of the school, and we look to our last year at Fairhaven High School with both anticipation and sorrow.

Candidates for the American Field Service program this year were: Anne Alexion, Richard Kszystyniak, Beth Church, Debbie Knox, Barbara Jo Moore, and Kayalice Marriott. Winner: Ann Early.

Eastern Massachusetts

Again this year, Fairhaven qualified for Tech Tourney. Because of their fine team work and good sportsmanship, the "Blue 5" won a large following of the students and faculty of F.H.S. In the first game Fairhaven received a heart-breaking defeat from an arch-rival, B. M. C. Durfee High School. Thus, on February 28, 1962, "Big Mike," Skip, Bob, Pete, and Steve played the last game of their high school careers.

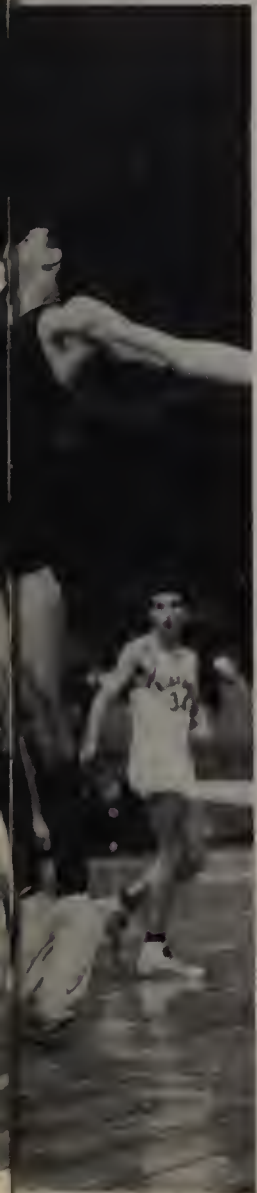

We salute the Entin-men for their energetic spirit and effort in Tech Tourney.

Now the anchor is hoisted,
The ship sets out for seas uncharted
Into disturbed and turbulent waters,
The waters of Chance and Fortune.
Where a miscalculation may end in shipwreck
Upon the rocky shores of Disaster
With the course carefully prepared,
Our vessel of the future travels
Smoothly and swiftly through
The sea of Life to the islands of Happiness and Prosperity.

Holley Macken - 12/21/1917
